Course Name	Introduction to Cat Electronic Technician
Course Number	52753
Duration	4 Hours
Course Description	This course is designed to help technicians learn the abilities of Cat® Electronic Technician (Cat® ET) and how to use it.
Skills/Topics	Objectives— Learners will be able to: • View active and logged diagnostic codes • View the status of a group of parameters • View events where irregularities are logged by the ECM • Graph a group of status parameters • Perform diagnostic tests • Perform calibrations • Print reports and diagnostic test
Prerequisites	None
Necessary Supplies and Equipment	• Laptop with Cat® ET software • Safety glasses with side shields, safety shoes (or hard-toed) • Appropriate work clothing is required.

Ring Power offers customer training courses for Operators and Technicians of every skill level. Custom classes can be developed, and we offer subscriptions to Caterpillar University.

Contact our Customer Training Department to learn more at CustTraining@RingPower.com, 904-737-7730, or visit https://www.ringpower.com/services/customer-training/.